Behold,
I am doing a new thing;
now it springs forth,
do you not perceive it?
I will make a way
in the wilderness and rivers in the desert.

GRACE NOTES: A Time to Heal

The shockwaves from the EU Referendum will be felt for some time yet. For many it was not an easy decision to make nor an easy result to take. But we are where we are and it is what it is.

Even before we heard the momentous result, we were hearing The Spirit say, "Behold, I am doing a new thing; now it springs forth, do you not perceive it? I will make a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert." Isa 43:19

If like me, you didn't get the result you were looking for remember the words of one of our former Prime Ministers, Winston Churchill who said, "Democracy is the worst form of government, except for all the others."

Our country is politically in liminal space. A space, or more worryingly a vacuum, bookended by un-tested pessimism and un-informed optimism. The referendum has exposed deep divisions within our society most starkly along generational and geographical lines.

The nation has decided and we must accept and respect that and do so mindful of the fact that we know that a house divided against itself will not be able to stand.

What we need now, and we need it more than ever, is for Spirit people to be spiritual. More than ever before creation is groaning waiting for you to be revealed.

We need the balm of love to be applied to our society. So what better time for us to turn our attention to the subject of spiritual gifts. As I've said previously, we are the branches on the tree of life. The fruit of our lives is for the healing of the nation. Apply it liberally.

Agape.
