

NEWS & UPDATE

Welcome to IGC (the International Gospel Church) we hope that you will feel at home whether you're just visiting or you're considering being with us more regularly. Our aim is that IGC will prove to be an inclusive graceful community where you will be enabled not simply to live gracefully, but to live fully by grace.

Meetings are held on Sundays at 10:30 a.m. & Wednesdays at 7:30 p.m. B.A.S.K

Conversations in Grace

Encouraged by your feedback from the August pilot we will be holding the next Q&A session 27th September. Once again Graham Mercer will put your questions to Paul Anderson-Walsh about grace, love and, well-being, our spiritual life in general. Please submit any questions you would like to have answered to Michelle or Viv.

THE GRACE OF GIVING: PART FIVE

If Christians are the fulfilment of the Old Covenant tithe, could it be that if we are robbing God, the nature of the crime is that we are withholding the tithe, i.e. ourselves, from Him and in that sense, we are the real losers?

The point is this: whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. Each one must give as he has made up his mind, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful [hilarious] giver. And God is able to make all grace abound to you, so that having all sufficiency in all things at all times, you may abound in every good work. As it is written,

He has distributed freely, He has given to the poor;
His righteousness endures for ever.

He who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food will supply and multiply your seed for sowing and increase the harvest of your righteousness. You will be enriched in every way for all your generosity, which through us will produce thanksgiving to God. 2 Cor. 9:6-11

As can be seen in 2 Corinthians 9:6-11 above, the grace and principles of giving may be laid out as follows:

- + Only give as the Lord leads
- + Whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly and whoever sows bountifully will reap bountifully
- + Each one must give as he has made up in his mind
- + Giving should never be done either reluctantly or under compulsion
- + God loves a cheerful (hilarious) giver
- + Give no more than what you can give hilariously
- + When you give hilariously, God is able to make all grace abound to you
- + Hilarious givers never lack the means to continue giving hilariously
- + What you have was given to you freely
- + It is God who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food
- + The reason He multiplies your seed is to enable you to sow (and not store) and increase your harvest of righteousness
- + When you give in this manner, you will be enriched in every way.
- + If you are not free not to give, you are not free to give.
