Grace Notes

It's hard (for me at least) to grasp the fact that it is the year 2020. I'm old enough to remember when we thought of 2020 as something out of science fiction, but here we are.

So what does 2020 mean for us...? Well I think that the Lord would have us realise that this is a time of renewed vision so that we would be under no illusion that He who is in us is greater than he that is in the world. This is a time for us to look to our spiritual optometrist to open the eyes of our understanding for we know that when we change the way we see things the things we see change.

We are living in what is known as a VUCA [Volatile, Uncertain, Complex and Ambiguous] age. It is easier for us to feel overcome than it is for us to remember that we are the overcomers because these are times of change. If we are to embrace change there must be something that doesn't change. As believers it is not something, it is Someone - The someone of the universe who became no-one; no-body. The One who is the same yesterday, today and tomorrow. Unwavering, undiminished love.

For those of us who are in the wilderness know that it is here that God speaks. Hold on to that in 2020 and may it be the Year when we will hear the clarion call of God – the trumpet blast to call us forth into our destiny.

So let us begin this new year, this new decade by reminding ourselves of what the unchanging one counselled us through his servant Jehoshaphat: 2 Chronicle 20:20 And they rose early in the morning and went out into the wilderness of Tekoa. And when they went out, Jehoshaphat stood and said, "Hear me, Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem! Believe in the LORD your God, and you will be established; believe his prophets, and you will succeed." Now that is 2020 vision.

Happy New Year!

Average Weekly Giving

Thank you for your continued financial support. As you can see from the graph we are behind budget. The gap between our fixed overheads and our income has widened in recent months. You don't need to be alarmed; the Lord provides. We would only ask you to be open and prayerful as to if, how, and when you too might want to participate in the ministry of giving and receiving.

A special thank you from the Elders for the one-off gift received towards the average weekly giving.
